

The Corporation for National and Community Service improves lives, strengthens communities, and fosters civic engagement through service and volunteering. CNCS provides opportunities for nearly two million Americans of all ages and backgrounds to serve.

"I'm showing by example what people with disabilities can do. We can participate in national service and live by the slogan, I will get things done for America. Just do it!"

—Ted Garland, AmeriCorps Member

National Service Inclusion Project

The National Service Inclusion Project (NSIP) is a training and technical assistance provider on disability inclusion, under a cooperative agreement from the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS). NSIP, with the Association on University Centers on Disability, National Council on Independent Living, Association on Higher Education and Disability and National Down Syndrome Congress builds connections among disability organizations and all CNCS grantees to increase the participation of and fully support people with disabilities in national service and volunteerism.
